STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Without exception, students participating in schools sponsored by the CMC Boulder Group are expected to:

- Prepare for and attend all classes.
 - Know ahead of time where lectures will be held. While we expect all lectures will be held at the Boulder Group clubroom, unforeseen circumstances may dictate a change. We will always announce location changes in class.
 - Be on time and stay for the entire lecture.
 - Read the assigned materials before the lecture.
 - If you have to cancel, and there is no waitlist, there will be no refunds !
- Prepare for and participate actively in all field trips.
 - Know ahead of time where and when to meet, and be a few minutes early. Different instructors have different favorite meeting and teaching spots.
 - If requested or required, practice your skills on your own time.
 - Be well rested, well hydrated and well nourished.
 - Be prepared for any weather.
 - Pay attention.

The safety of you, your fellow students, and your instructors is quite literally in your hands. We will provide the knowledge and skills you need to hike and climb safely in the Colorado mountains, but it's up to you to absorb that knowledge and practice those skills.

For schools that consist of multiple field trips, each field trip builds on skills taught and practiced in prior sessions. If you miss a field trip – for any reason – your instructor may elect to prohibit you from participating in subsequent field trips. The Boulder CMC does not routinely provide makeup field trips. Under extenuating circumstances, we may be able to arrange for students to participate in future sessions, but such arrangements are at the sole discretion of the Director of the School.

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THESE RESPONSIBILITIES. I am enrolling for this school with the intent of attending every class and field trip. I have no plans or commitments that interfere with my ability to fulfill these responsibilities.
