Note from the Editor

As you can see by the enclosed flyer, the Annual Dinner is November 3, 2007 — don't miss it! This is an annual ritual, which though required in the ByLaws, is also a really great way to meet others in the club in a jovial setting. The dinner committee would like to show pictures contributed by club members. Send any digital pictures you would like to contribute to compass@cmcboulder.org. They will be projected during the dinner prior to the Annual Meeting and speaker — the bigger the better! Other events will include a Recognition Ceremony, a free raffle for some great schwag, a Leaders gear award winners ceremony, and some Dancing Entertainment, followed by some group dancing. The Avalon has one of the best dance floors in the county. So, be there or be !

ByLaws Amendments for Consideration at November Annual Meeting

[Editor's Note: The following ByLaws changes will be voted on at the Annual Meeting during the Annual Dinner on November 3; see inserted flyer for more information about the Dinner.]

At the Boulder Group Council meeting on August 13, 2007, the Boulder Group Council adopted the following proposed amendments to the Boulder Group ByLaws. The amendments are generally not substantive, and are primarily designed to conform with changes made in 1997 to the State CMC organizational structure, which included modification of the composition of the State Board of Directors, and the creation of the State Council. Other changes include: making it explicit that to become a member, one must pay the applicable dues; a provision that inactive status occurs after non-payment of dues for 3 months (to be consistent with state ByLaws); elimination of mention of the "Junior Group Sponsor" (which no longer exists); assigning record maintenance functions to the Secretary, instead of the Vice Chair; clarifying that it is the Outings Committee that approves trip leaders; removing a reference to use of the Brainard Cabin in the "Finance" section; and specifying that Robert's Rules of Order will be used to resolve procedural disputes at meetings, instead on mandating their use for all Club meetings.

In the ByLaws amendments proposed below, language to be removed is identified by strikeout, while new language to be inserted is underlined. Comments on

State Board Adopts Strategic Plan

At its July 14, 2007 regular meeting, the State CMC Board of Directors approved a strategic plan for the Club to carry it through the 100th anniversary of the club to the year 2012. The process began in May 2006 and is expected to be completed on October 27, 2007 when the strategic plan is presented to the State Council for its approval. The plan currently consists of a vision statement, a mission statement, a listing of the Club's values, and a listing of adopted strategic goals and objectives. The plan will be supplemented by additional strategies and tactics developed at the state level and by the individual Groups as they see fit. The plan is expected to be updated every three years.

The process began with CMC President, Janice Palmer's e-mail to group chairs to reflect on the appropriateness of the CMC mission statement adopted in 1912. Progress of the Strategic Planning Committee (Committee) has been reported at each of the quarterly Board meetings since, as well as at the semi-annual State Council meetings. A survey of member opinions was conducted in the Fall of 2006 and reported to the State Board in January.

The Board approved the following vision statement: We connect people with the Colorado Mountain experience. We are the premier membership organization providing human-powered mountain adventures that are safe, enjoyable, and environmentally responsible. The Board identified primary values as: Members,

Conservation Chair Report

Our new Conservation Chair, Kristyn Kilfoy, will begin her term in October. Prior chairs were Sandy Hollingsworth (4/2006-9/2007), Bev Gholson (2000-2006) and Bobbie Klein (1998 to 2000, the first Chair). Kristyn has worked with Outdoor Colorado and WRV, a BMS graduate, and enjoys hiking and climbing with the CMC. She works as a computer professional and is a certified project manager. Kristyn says that she has a strong love of the environment since she was child growing up in Colorado. Please join us in welcoming her to the Council! And thanks to our past chairs for establishing relationships with other conservation groups in the area.

On October 30 the Brainard Area Winter Trail Use committee (including our Conservation Chair) will be having their annual meeting with the USFS to review trail locations, signage, and other aspects of the Brainard Lake area. On September 10, several CMC members walked with staff of the Boulder Ranger District and members of Boulder Mountain Bike Alliance to evaluate recent Waldrop trail reroutes plus assess the Little Raven Trail for possible future projects. Further discussions will be held regarding placing biking trails compatible with hiking trails as planned in the Forest Service Master Plan which was finalized in December 2005. Watch for future updates.

In August, the CMC submitted comments to Boulder County Parks and Open Spaceregarding the proposal to develop parking areas at the Hessie trailhead. In brief, we support the expansion of designated parking to promote safe access to the trails as long conservation is factored in to the location of parking. We also support retaining the existing parking spots along the road to the trailhead since they provide further, safe access points. Thanks to the CMC member who brought this issue to our attention.

Please feel free to contact Kristyn via e-mail at conservation@cmcboulder.org with your thoughts.

Learn To Be a Cabin Host

Host training can be your ticket to a good time for you and your friends. This is where one of the current Hutmasters teaches volunteers how to be a Cabin Host for the Brainard Cabin. This training will qualify you and your party to stay overnight — what a great option for your getaway plans! Training is scheduled for October 6 and 20. The cabin is still in need of Hosts for the following weekends: every weekend in Dec. except the last, the first weekend in Feb. and all of March except the first weekend. There is complete information about the cabin online, including all 68 pages of the Cabin Users Manual (whew!). You can also make cabin reservations online, and, new this year, pay via credit card. □

Volunteers, Recreation, Education/Skill Building, Conservation, Safety, and Collaboration. The Board decided not to make any revisions to the mission statement in the development of this version of the plan. This was due to a statewide member survey which revealed that 87% of respondents either agreed or strongly agreed that the current mission statement is relevant, appropriate and descriptive of the Club's purpose.

The six adopted goals are: 1) Members - Provide an excellent experience for members and prospective members; 2) Recreational Opportunities - To provide and encourage enjoyable, safe, environmentally responsible, human powered recreation activities; 3) Education - Teach mountaineering and outdoor skills to enhance safety, enjoyment and the appreciation of the natural environment; 4) Conservation -To sustain wilderness, wildlife and native ecosystems in Colorado for the appreciation and enjoyment by current and future generations; 5) Organization - Provide an organizational structure and infrastructure that optimally supports the organization; and 6) Financial - Build and sustain a strong, diverse financial base.

Further details can be obtained from any State Board member, or Executive Directory, Kristy Judd in the Golden office. Feel free to offer comments and suggestions to any Boulder Group Council member as to how any aspect of the strategic can be implemented at the local level. □

State Board Adopts 2007-2008 Budget

At its July 14, 2007 regular meeting, the State Board adopted the budget for the fiscal year covering October 2007 through September 2008. While the budget is similar to the 2006-2007 budget in most areas, notable differences include: 1) a change in the allocation formula where department allocations towards general and administrative (G&A) expenses are allocated based on relative size of the departments' expense budgets and square footage occupied; 2) CMC Press sales are expected to increase with the aid of a part-time sales person; 3) a reduction in Conservation grant funding with a focus on land stewardship programs; 4) expected increased corporate funding for education; 5) and additional ½ staff person and additional efforts for membership recruitment, service and marketing; 6) and additional ½ staff person for development (fundraising); 7) a lower cost format for the Trail & Timberline (T&T) with a savings of $5,000; 8) opening of the museum in winter of 2008 with increased revenues and expenses.

The budget is balanced at $1,809,196, with revenues matching expenditures. The Denver Group pays $30,398 for operating expenses for the AMC building and $94,996 for staff support of its operation. The Education Department covers its entire revenue of $214,000 from non-membership sources, paying $25,153 towards general and administrative overhead. The Conservation Department receives $20,000 of its $207,134 total revenue from the general fund and pays $21,879 towards general and administrative overhead. Adventure Travel and the CMC Press spend what they generate after making general and administrative overhead contributions of $33,850 and $23,066 respectively. Total Scientific and Cultural Facilities District (SCFD) revenues are $156,034, in support of general overhead, CMC Press, conservation, education, web site and marketing, and museum programs.

State dues will remain the same. State membership dues are used to pay for the T&T Activity Schedule, a portion of the G&A overhead, library and liability insurance. The budget expects an increase in the net number of new members by 200 as a result of the strategies recommended by the Membership Task Team. Some of those strategies include hiring staff, prospecting for new members using outdoor retailers mailing lists and creating a speaker's bureau. If you'd like a copy of the full report of the Membership Task Force, please let me know and I can send you a copy electronically.

The draft budget was distributed to the Boulder Group Council one week prior to the July Boulder Group Council meeting, and 12 days before the July State Board meeting. While there were questions as to what some of the numbers meant at both meetings, the budget unanimously approved by the State Board, was identical to the draft previously circulated. The final approved budget is expected to be placed on the state CMC web page. I volunteered to serve on the State Finance Committee at the July State Board meeting, so I will be happy to entertain any comments or questions on either this budget or next year's budget.
